Campus Wi-Fi

The Cal State LA wireless network supports all the latest devices and Wi-Fi protocols. Students can access the CSULA-SECURE wireless network on campus using their MyCalStateLA ID username and password. Find more information on the Information Technology Services \(ITS\) wireless network webpage.

Computer Labs

If you need a quiet space to study or to log in to your remote class, computers are available in the University Library and five Open Access Labs across campus, as well as in four additional temporary Open Access Labs. Earbuds will be provided for students to use at any of the Open Access Labs.

Open Access Labs

Find information about updated Open Access Lab hours on the OAL webpage.

Charging stations are also available in the Open Access Labs and are equipped with Micro USB, Mini USB, iPad and iPhone (8-pin), and Type-C USB chargers. For more information, visit the Open Access Labs webpage.
